

UEAA Best Abstracts scientific competition 2026

Instructions to authors

Objective

The abstracts are intended to be disseminated on the UEAA website as scientific information for a general public in the field of agriculture, food and the environment. A special attention should be made:

- 1- To explain the applied purposes of the study,
- 2- Highlight the potential impact of the work on agriculture, food and the environment.

Abstract

It should be written in English following typing and formatting instructions below*, and sent under the DOCX format, The Abstract should avoid specialised jargon, be informative, convey the essence of the study or review. Reference to a recently published article is possible, provided that the dissemination of the abstract does not contradict the engagements towards the publisher. Nevertheless, the abstract must be understandable by the reader without reading the full publication and, to maintain clarity and trustworthiness, it should not contain material that is not in the main text of the publication.

Graphical abstract

The authors are invited to include a graphical abstract illustrating the main conclusions arising from their work. This should appear as the second page of the same doc. file. Although not compulsory, the quality of this graphical abstract will contribute to the final notation.

Title, names and addresses of authors

The title should be concise (no more than 70 characters, spaces included) and understandable by non-specialists, it should not contain abbreviations. Standard terminology should be used to facilitate information retrieval and indexing; for example, 'Epidemiological survey of blackleg in cattle in France' (topic, disease, species, country).

The family names of authors should be preceded by their initials and followed by a superscript bracketed Arabic number. The corresponding author should be identified with an asterisk and his/her email address supplied. The full address of each author should be given below the list of names, as follows:

H. Jones ⁽¹⁾, M.L. Smith ⁽²⁾ & M. Webber ^{(2)*}

⁽¹⁾ Department of Animal Studies, Centre for Environmental Research, 12 Wxxx Street, London W1 xxx, United Kingdom

⁽²⁾ Institute of Veterinary Research, 4 Portsmouth Road, Southampton Sxxxx, United Kingdom

* Corresponding author: m.webber@ivr.org

Keywords

Five keywords should be provided.

*Typing and formatting instructions

The text should be typed on an A4 format, Font – Times New Roman; font size – 12 points, in 1.0. line space, and justified. Margins must be: left 3.00 cm, top 2.0 cm, bottom 2.0 cm, 2.0 cm right. No bold letters except particular cases. All information, including title, names and addresses of authors, keywords and source of abstract should fit within one single page. The graphical abstract, if any, should appear as a second page.
